

Sree Narayana Vidya Mandir Central School's

21st Annual Report

Launched in the year 1999, the Saraswathi Temple offers a high standard of education based on the Panchanga discipline. The school has 648 students and 34 teachers and 15 non-teachers who are qualified and trained as per CBSE requirements. Over the last few years, Sree Narayana Vidya Mandir has been jumping from achievement to achievement in academic and non-academic subjects.

The corona virus plunged us into a state of complete unfamiliarity with humanity at a time when learning, play, laughter, and companionship were the order of the day. For the past year and a half there have been online classes. By providing online classes four times a day for up to four periods for higher classes and also for KG classes every day, Despite the Covid School has given the best education to the children for one-and-a-half-year as they have completed the closure, not far from the world of letters, without missing out on learning opportunities.

Offline classes partially launched in November. School operations returned to normal in February after surviving the crises raised by the Covid epidemic .Today, over 80% of students come to school with confidence and joy.

As in previous years, our school repeated 100% success in the CBSE Class X examination in the academic years 2019-20 and 2020-21. Of the 33 students who wrote the exam in 2020, PS Linet Maria, Gayathri Menon K and Anna Rose Joy scored A1 in all subjects. 9 students got more than 90 per cent marks, 25 got top marks in Distinction and 4 got full marks in Social Science.

Out of 28 students appearing for the examination in 2021, Arunima CU, Anagha TR, Krishna TT and Sneha Prashanth scored A1 in all subjects. 10 students scored more than 90 per cent, 22 above distinction and 2 full marks in Social Science.
